

Specification of courses for Courses' Book

|  |   |  |          |
|--|---|--|----------|
| Study program  |   | PhD Studies                                |          |
| Module   |   |  |          |
| Type and degree of studies                                     |   | PhD Studies                                |          |
| Course   |   | Contemporary international law             |          |
| ECTS   | 10  | Status of the course (compulsory/elective) | Elective |
| Prerequisite   | non   |  |          |
| Objectives of the course                                       | Objective. - The aim of the course is to familiarize with the situation and the development of actual problems of modern public international law. Of particular concern are questions such as : the concept of international law in our time ; contemporary subjects of international law ; State territory in international law ; term, type , name and definition of a minority ; minority rights; international judiciary; international criminal courts ; the concept of humanitarian intervention and preventive self-defense ; the fight against modern pirates.   |  |          |
| Outcome of the course  | To provide knowledge about the theoretical and methodological basis of functioning and development of international law , through the study of some of the most current questions of contemporary international law and to facilitate the introduction to some of the most important problems of modern international relations.  |  |          |
| Content of the course  |   |  |          |
| Theoretical teaching   | 1.Term of international law - domestic and international law ; Various definitions of international law ; concept of modern international law ; name; development of international law ; International Law as a unique legal order ; division of international law and distinction from similar phenomena ; 2.Subjektiv international law - the international community ; the notion of a subject of international law ; country; quasi-state ; international organizations ; so-called international organizations ; entities sui generis ; individuals and groups ; 3. Serbian territory in international law: - spatial dimension of international law; the term of the national territory; methods of acquiring national territory; ways of losing the state border; inviolability of national territory; 4.Term, type, name and definition of a minority - the term; the problem of choosing the right name; the definition of minorities; problem of distinction and different treatment. autochthonous and allochthonous minorities; 5.Minority rights - minority rights as human rights; universal human rights and freedoms; special minority rights; minority rights: individual and / or collective rights; restrictions on minority rights, duties of minorities.6. International judicature at the beginning of the 21st century: general overview, review of the most important contemporary international courts, international courts as reality 7. International criminal courts: situation to the Second World War, Contemporary ad hoc tribunals, mixed courts, permanent International Criminal Court; 8.Concepts of humanitarian intervention and preventive self-defense in light of the prohibition of the use and threat of force: humanitarian intervention, preventive self-defense; 9. Pirates: pirates, piracy in the past, sea robbery and modern international law, the most important problems |  |          |
| Practical teaching (practical work, additional work, research) |   |  |          |
| Literature   |   |  |          |
| 1  | 1.Basic : KRIVOKAPIĆ Boris : Current problems of international law , Official Gazette , Belgrade , 2011, 754 p .;   |  |          |
| 2  | KRIVOKAPIĆ Boris: Encyclopedic Dictionary of International Law and International Relations (Belgrade, 2011)   |  |          |
| 3  | AKEHURST M.: A Modern Introduction to International Law (London 1984), BENNET A. LeRoy, OLIVER  |  |          |
| 4  |   |  |          |
| 5  |   |  |          |
| Active classes per week during semester / year                 |   |  |          |
| Lectures   | Practical work  | Additional work                            | Research |
| 45   |   |  | 60       |
| Methods of teaching  | Lectures and collective work in class. Individual work : consultations . Final oral exam.   |  |          |
| Assessment (maximum 100 points)                                |   |  |          |
| Pre-exam tasks   | Points  | Final exam                                 | Points   |
| Activities during lectures                                     |   | Written exam                               |          |

|                |  |           |     |
|----------------|--|-----------|-----|
| Practical work |  | Oral exam | 100 |
| Progress tests |  |           |     |
| Seminar papers |  |           |     |
|                |  |           |     |